September Torsk Season Launches with the "Diary of a Wrigley Field Usher"

We are pleased to welcome Mr. Bruce Bohrer to our podium on September 10. Bruce Bohrer was born and raised on the North Side of Chicago where he became an avid Cubs fan. Beginning in 2003, Bruce spent nine seasons working as an usher at Wrigley Field. During that time, he saw it all: brushes with greatness, marriage proposals, creative signs and cheers, unique crowd control issues, and the sheer awe and excitement of Wrigley patrons. His book, Best Seat in the House! Diary of a Wrigley Field Usher details both the joys and tribulations he experienced. And it does so with a perspective only an usher could offer, as he tells of his days at the shrine called Wrigley.

This is our first meeting of the 2016-2017 torsk season after months of summer break, so call your reservation early. We look forward to seeing you.

...and Vasa Park the Day After

As in past years, the Chicago Torske Klub will staff a booth at the Vasa Park Scandinavian Festival event on September 11, 2016. Details are at the web site at http://www.scandinaviandayil.com/. In summary, Festival Hours are from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm. $10.00 per person. Children 12 and under free! Nordic and non Nordic food and drink is available for purchase, and this year a Nordic beer tasting is offered by reservation. The venue includes Norwegian folk dancing, and a class for the same, along with the popular ABBA tribute and many more entertainers and events.

Many of our members participate in various organizations, but if you have a Torske Klub shirt or hat, it is a great way and place to advertise our extensive membership. See you there!

Torske Klub Luncheon - September 10, 2016

Viking Longboat Visits Chicago

The Draken Harald Hårfagre was featured in the news in Chicago as it passed through on it's epic voyage from Norway. In doing so, it was traversing similar locations as Leif Ericcson did a millennia ago, and similar to the passage of the Viking in 1893 to the Chicago Columbian Exposition. A number of our members visited the ship as a part of the Tall Ships event at Navy Pier in Chicago. We look forward especially to the report from our Treasurer, Ken Nordan, as he accompanied a journalist around Chicago for a future story of the Viking ships and their journeys in a national publication.

The journey from Norway to Chicago was not uneventful. After leaving Norway for a tour of the Orkney Islands in 2014, the mast broke and required repair in Shetland. The long passage from Norway to America via Iceland and Greenland started from Haugesund in Norway in April 2016. The voyage is documented on their website: http://www.drakenexpeditionamerica.com/. Likely the biggest challenge of the journey occurred at the entry to the Great Lakes, the final leg. The Draken was subject to the laws of the US requiring a licensed pilot to be onboard. Funding efforts and donations of time from consuls, pilots, and the especially the Sons of Norway, brought the ship to Chicago and to Green Bay where the Tall Ship voyage ended early. The ship is now making its way to New York and to Mystic CT this year.—kol
